

Oconee County Mad Libs

Oconee County History Trip

_____ decided to take a trip to visit Oconee County's _____ historic sites.
Name Adjective

First, _____ visited Oconee Station State Historic Site. The blockhouse _____ Same Name Past Tense Verb

as an outpost for the men of the South Carolina militia from 1792 to 1799. Later the Richards House was constructed as a home and trading post to serve _____. While at Oconee Station, Noun

_____ saw a _____ demonstration of what it was like living in the Same Name Adjective

Backcountry in the late 1700s. The next stop on the history trip was Stumphouse Tunnel. This _____ tunnel was constructed in the mid-1800s for the Blue Ridge Railroad to come through. Later on, Clemson University cured their _____ blue cheese in the tunnel.

Adjective

Adjective

_____ _____ up to the mountains to visit Oconee State Park.
Name Verb

At the park there are cabins, lakes, and buildings _____ by the Civilian Conservation Verb

Corps during the Great Depression in the 1930s. After a _____ day of traveling, Adjective

_____ realized that he/she couldn't _____ visit all of Oconee County's Same Name Adverb

historic sites in one day!

